GOOD ROADS AND AUTOISTS

SALT LAKE, Dec. 11.—Good roads, a question close to the hearts of the autoists, will be given ample discussion Wednesday night, when the members of the Automobile Club of Utah and their friends sit down at their annual banquet, which will be held at the Commercial club.

President Quigley has arranged for a number of prominent auto men to speak on this subject, and in order that their appeals for better highways may not be futile, he has sent out invitations to Governor Spry and other officials, including mayors and county commissioners, to be present. The chief executives of Salt Lake and Ogden, the local city council and the commissioners of Weber and Davis counties are asked to come, and the club is in hopes that they will be there to listen to the pleas for good roads.

Special stress will be laid upon the need of improving the road from this city to Ogden. The auto owners claim that this highway is the most traveled road in the state. Davis county has done considerable work this fall near Farmington, but there still are many portions of the road that are in a bad way. This will be discussed with the Davis county officials and means of co-operation between autoists and the commissioners will be devised.

Wednesday night's feast is not alone for members of the Automobile Club of Utah. Any auto enthusiast desiring to attend may do so, and an urgent request in this line is extended by Manager Rishel.

VAN WYCK ROSSITER DEAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Vice President Edward Van Wyck Rossiter, of the New York Central lines, died at his home in Flushing, L. I., this morning, of a complication of diseases, after an illness of several months. Mr. Rossiter was born in St. Louis in 1884.

CHEESE IS THE THING

Easily Digested, and Welsh Rarebit Is a Good Thing

Washington, Dec. 12.—The Department of Agriculture is advancing to the defense of the Welsh rarebit. Having proved by extensive experiments with the respiration calorimeter—a double walled, heat-proof room connected with electrical instruments of wonderful precision—that raw cheese is easily digested, the department will begin work in the near future to prove that the Welsh rarebit is misundstood.

At the conclusion of the experiments, Secretary Wilson will issue a bulletin explaining how to prepare a Welsh rarebit according to the official government formula, with beer or without. The cheese tests have been going on for years, but the experts have kept the secret well.

It has just become known that an official report on cheese is in preparation, that volunteer subjects have been fed on cheese for days at a time, that one subject lived practically on bread and cheese for a year and suffered no ill effects.

NOT ACTING FOR THE RAILROAD

According to statements made by William H. Chevers, freight agent of the Harriman lines, there seems to have been a misunderstanding regarding the alleged refusal of the railroad company to allow the city to dump garbage near the crematorium in the vicinity of Twenty-eighth street.

An article in these columns yesterday morning told of a clash between City Sanitary Inspector Moroni Poulter and Special Railroad Officer Chas. Shumaker, but later development would seem to indicate that any misunderstanding which may exist is primarily between Officer Shumaker and his superiors.

Agent Chevers now claims that Officer Shumaker was not acting under instructions from the railroad company when he refused to allow city employees to dump garbage on the property which he claimed belonged to his company. In making this assertion the higher official of the Harriman system avers that Mr. Shumaker was acting solely as a private citizen and, being a property owner in that locality, protested against the dumping of garbage because he believed it to be detrimental to property in the neighborhood.

Mr. Chevers claimed that Mr. Shumaker might have been representing other property owners in that locality, but was not representing the railroad company in making his fight against the city officials. Any trouble as the result of garbage being dumped in that particular location would result between the city and the property-owners and not between the city and the railroad company, is the claim of the Harriman representative. He denied that the railroad company had any intention of making trouble for the city.

This information was conveyed to Sanitary Inspector Poulter last evening and in conversation with a reporter for this paper the city official stated very positively that Mr. Shumaker represented himself to be acting under instructions from the railroad company when he ordered the garbage wagons off the property Saturday.

"Another railroad officer was with him at the time," claimed Mr. Poulter, "and they even went so far as to say that the railroad engineer had surveyed the property last week and assured them that the city was dumping garbage on railroad land. Mr. Douglas was with me at the time and will tell you that Shumaker represented he was acting under instructions from his company."

Are You Deaf?

Catarh is Probably the Cause. Get Rid of the Cause.

If you have catarrh and have constant ringing noises in your ears look into the matter at once.

Its a pretty sure sign that catarrh is spreading and is making its way through the Eustachian tubes that lead from the nose to the ears. When catarrh gets to the ears partial deafness follows. If you have ringing noises in your ears go to BADCON PHARMACY today and get a HYOMEI outfit and drive out catarrh.

To cure catarrh HYOMEI should be breathed through a pocket inhaler for a few minutes, four or five times a day. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler and breathe it.

It kills the germs; soothes the irritation; heals the inflammation; stops hacking, spitting and snuffling. HYOMEI keeps the throat free from mucus and prevents crusts in nose. The complete HYOMEI outfit which includes the little indestructible hard rubber inhaler, a bottle of HYOMEI and simple instructions for use, costs $1.00. Separate bottles of HYOMEI cost 50 cents at BADCON PHARMACY and druggists everywhere, on money back plan.

ZELAYA IS RESTLESS

Desires to Return to Nicaragua There to End His Days

New York, Dec. 12.—Gen. Jose Zelaya, deposed president of Nicaragua, and for nearly 20 years the despot of his country, is not happy in his exile in Belgium, according to his son Alphonse, who is a student at Columbia university. Though Zelaya has $150,000—$100,000 of which is his own money—he has written to his son that he wants to return to Nicaragua to finish his life in peace among his own people.

Young Zelaya, who was estranged from his father for some time after marrying against the father's wishes, has just received a letter in which the former president says that he will sail for New York within a few weeks, expecting to arrive here about the middle of January. Gen. Zelaya wants to visit President Taft at Washington and talk over with him the killing of Grover and Cannon, the two young Americans who were put to death by Nicaraguan soldiers in the last revolution.

"My father," said young Zelaya, "will not attempt to fight his way back to his own country. On his arrival here, he will cable Estrada, the present head of the government, and ask permission to come back to his native land to end his days there. He will promise to take no part in the conduct of affairs, a promise I know he will keep."

"When he left the country he received the assurance from some of his friends that he would be allowed to return when peace was restored."

The letters written by Gen. Zelaya to his son picture the former dictator as broken down in health, dissatisfied with his surroundings and with only ambition to return to Nicaragua to live in peace. If he is permitted to return, he gives his word that he will live quietly.

"I have never had a moment's peace since I left my dear native land," he writes. "I long for it every day and my heart is filled with sadness over the realization that I am an exile. The world never understood me, and never could understand me. I will not seek to explain matters which have, perhaps justly, been attributed to my administration. All I ask is to be allowed to return to my native land, there to live and there to die."

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

JOSEPHINE HUSS.

Mrs. Josephine Huss, aged 59 years, and widow of the late Amelins Huss, died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of her son, George Huss, manager of the Central Carriage Works. The woman's death was due to pneumonia, from which she had suffered for the past eleven days.

Mrs. Huss was well known in Ogden and possessed those lovable characteristics which endeared her to a host of friends who will learn of her unexpected death with profound sorrow. Mrs. Huss was born in Holland on April 4, 1851, and was the daughter of George and Nellie Klien Bune.

She came to Utah in 1866, arriving here on September 24, and her residence in Ogden dated from that time.

She is survived by the following children: Alexander, George and Mrs. Kate Huss Blodgett. There are also three sisters, Mrs. Catherine Hartog, Mrs. Diana Astell and Mrs. Nellie Reno, and one brother, James Bune.

IDA MAY JACKSON.

The funeral services for Mrs. Ida May Jackson were held at the Third Ward meeting house at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Bishop's Counselor J. G. Kilstrom officiating. The other speakers were Elder Christensen, William Price and Gilbert Torgerson.

Mrs. Florence sang the solos, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "O, My Father," and Miss Bertha Brown sang the solo, "O, Loving Father." The attendance at the services was large and the casket was covered with beautiful flowers.

Interment was made in the Ogden City cemetery.

EDWARD MONAGHAN.

Funeral services over the remains of Edward Monaghan were held yesterday afternoon at Lindquist's funeral chapel, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. There were a large number of friends in attendance.

Miss Elsie Shorten sang, "O, Love Divine" and "I Know That My Redeemer Lives." Interment was made in the Ogden City cemetery.

FAWN RICHARDSON.

The remains of Fawn May, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Richardson, were laid to rest in the Ogden City cemetery yesterday afternoon, following funeral services at 3 o'clock at Lindquist's funeral chapel. Bishop W. C. Ridges conducted the services.

In addition to Bishop Ridges, Charles Price also spoke. Mrs. Orson Griffin sang, "I Know That My Redeemer Lives," and "Oh, My Father," also the "Christian's Goodnight."

FRANCIS M'KENDRY.

Francis McKendry died at his home, 614 Sullivan avenue, yesterday. He was a well-known resident of this city and was employed as traveling salesman.

He was born in New York on March 7, 1845, and for thirty-five years he was a resident of Ogden.

The funeral services will be conducted at St. Joseph's church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be made in Mountain View.

THE TRAVELING SALESMAN

Henry B. Harris will present James Forbes' comedy, "The Traveling Salesman," at the Orpheum theatre next Saturday, matinee and night, December 17.

The play, which has been seen in Ogden before, has been one of the greatest comedy successes of the past ten years, and the entire country has been covered from coast to coast by several companies of equal excellence. Mr. Harris, whose fame as a producer is built upon his management of Rose Stahl, Robert Edson, Elsie Ferguson, Helen Ware, "The Third Degree," "The Lion and the Mouse," and other well-known attractions, enjoys the distinction with the press and public of having always kept faith with them in whatever he undertook.

If you see Harris' imprint on the advertising matter, you may rest assured that the attraction is above the average, and that you will pass a pleasant evening in the theatre.

Although Mr. Harris has been the most prolific of producers for the past several seasons, and has stood the front of many failures during that time, he has never yet bolstered up one of them, and inflicted it upon the long suffering public of what is known theatrically as "the road."

"The road" has had the same careful treatment and consideration from him that the metropolis has, and this paper is willing to stand sponsor for the statement.

In the case of a pronounced success such as "The Traveling Salesman" and "The Third Degree," the demand is so great that several companies must be organized to tour the country, and every place cannot see the "original cast." (How great a misnomer that sometimes is!) The touring companies are oftentimes better than the original, however, as it stands to reason that the mistakes made in the original casting of the play before it is tried can be remedied when it is sent on tour. In the case of Mr. Harris' productions one company is always as good as another. Here the production is billed upon its merits and is not subservient to a "star."

There is no star in "The Traveling Salesman," and so local theatre goers may look for a cast of uniform excellence when the comedy is repeated here next Saturday.

With this assurance the press agent announces such well known players as Mark Smith, Dallas Tyler, Diana Hunter, Dean Bopp, Mark Price, Emmett Shaleford, Felix Krembs, Glenn Burton and others.

Seats will be placed on sale at the box office on Tuesday morning.

AMERICAN MONEY MAY GO TO RUSSIA

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—John Hays Hammond, the American mining engineer and promoter, arrived here today. He comes in the interest of a financial group to investigate the possibilities for the investment of American capital in Russia. The proposals include the construction of grain elevators, development of irrigation, lighting, street car service and the building of sewers.

Gregory W. Wilkenin, the Russian financial agent at Washington, is here co-operating with Mr. Hammond.

The Novoe Vremya is inclined to think that the government will encourage the American enterprise.

HOW THE POOR OF NEW YORK LIVE

New York, Dec. 12.—How the poor of New York's East Side meet the increased cost of living is told in the 28th annual report of the Charity Organization Society which has just been issued.

"The general way of meeting the higher cost of supplies," says the report, "has been a serious reduction in the amount and quality of food. The people have subsisted on meat once or twice a week, fresh vegetables have been almost entirely cut out, while milk and butter have been reduced to their lowest terms. This is not all. There has been a tendency toward the irreducible minimum of bread and tea and coffee."

"Effects of this have begun to be apparent even in the adults, and under-nourishment has been noticed as never before in the children on the streets and in the new families coming to the city. What the high prices have meant to the poor is epitomized in the uncomplaining comment of a self-supporting widow with little children, a relative of a family who had applied for help, who said that since condensed milk had gone up two cents a can she could only allow one teaspoonful for each cup of coffee instead of two, to which they had previously been accustomed."

PROFANE AND INDECENT.

Cleveland, Dec. 12.—Deaf mutes are complaining against the use of profane and indecent expressions by players in moving picture films and will ask for a rigid censorship by the manufacturers.

Mrs. Elmer E. Bates, for many years a teacher of the deaf and dumb, and an expert in the art of lip reading, declares that these shows are the chief source of amusement for the deaf and dumb and they are prevented from enjoying them because they are able to understand what is being said by the characters on the screens. Mrs. Bates made a tour of the downtown shows yesterday accompanied by a reporter who wrote down the language used so vile that she had to stop.

Mayor Baehr admits that the question is too deep for him, but thinks it is a matter to be adjusted by the humane society. A. B. Williams, Jr., of this organization, however, says it should be taken up with the manufacturers of the films.

DR. REICH DEAD.

London, Dec. 12.—Dr. Emil Reich, author and lecturer, died yesterday. He was born at Eperjes, Hungary, in 1854.

CONSERVATION IS DEFENDED

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The problem of subsistence is the problem of nine-tenths of the human race today, and it is probable that tonight one-half of the people of the earth will go to bed hungry, or at least inadequately fed, said President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin in his address to the Chicago Ethical society on the "Ethical Aspects of the Conservation Movement."

"We are the most reckless and the most improvident of all people of all time. But we have seen an outburst of remedial legislation during the first decade of the 20th century that is unparalleled in the history of the race. This legislation is not the result of hysteria, but is simply the awakening to the necessity of conserving our resources."

"The time of individualism is gone by. It must give way to collectivism. No longer shall one who controls a natural resource say: 'It's all mine; I will do with it as I please.' We must develop a sense of responsibility. We must realize our responsibility to our descendants. Conservation means the greatest good to the greatest number, and that for the longest time."

Speaking of our coal supply he said that the abatement of the smoke nuisance alone for cities of the United States would save $500,000,000 annually and would save Chicago $50,000,000 annually.

HANS WAGNER IS HELD BY PIRATES

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 12.—Hans Wagner, who was for seven different seasons the premier batsman of the National league, whose tenth year with the Pittsburg nine the last summer has been followed with rumors of probable sale or release, will either play with the Pirates again next year or else retire for good on the laurels he has won.

Manager Clark silenced all rumors by this statement last night before leaving for New York with other Pittsburg officials to attend the annual meeting of the National league. He said:

"I will neither sell, trade nor release Wagner. If he ever plays ball again it will be with Pittsburg. Of course he may not want to play, but if he does he will be throwing dust around the inner field next summer."

It is expected, however, that there will be a shakeup in the Pirate squad, and Clark admitted it, but would not intimate in what quarter it would be made.

ANOTHER CONTEST OVER THE BALDWIN MILLIONS

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 12.—The fight of Beatrice Anita Baldwin Turnbull for a two-ninths share in the $11,000,000 estate of the late E. E. Baldwin begins before Judge Rives and a jury in the superior court today.

The contestant was born in this city 17 years ago and her birth certificate on record here gives her mother's name as Lillian A. Ashley and her father's name as Elias Jackson Baldwin. It is claimed that Mrs. Ashley and Baldwin were living under what the former at the time supposed was a common law marriage agreement, the original of which is said to be in the hands of H. A. Unruh, executor of the Baldwin estate.

The validity of the marriage is not an issue, the contention being that under California law the child of a void marriage is regarded as legitimate and the failure of Baldwin to mention Beatrice in his will does not raise the legal presumption that he intended to disinherit her.

Distribution of the estate to the heirs was about to be made when this contest was filed, tying up the property indefinitely.

UTAH MAN'S APPOINTMENT APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

Washington, Dec. 12.—The appointments of J. R. Clark, Jr., of Utah, as solicitor for the state department, and W. T. Thompson of Nebraska as solicitor for the treasury department, were approved today by the senate committee on judiciary. They were sent back to the senate for that body's congrmation.

CONGRESSMAN IS STRICKEN DOWN BY APOPLEXY

Washington, Dec. 12.—Representative Joel Cook of Pennsylvania lies in a semi-comatose condition at his hotel apartments here today as the result of a stroke of apoplexy, and fears for his recovery are entertained.
